Author Notes

This Story is based off of parts of Foxy'sGirl's Story -Stages of Grief-. If you have read it you can find parts that came form her story. She had given me full permission to use some parts.

Intro

Saturday morning around 1 am

It's a snowy winter night in Colorado. And Hiccup is on his way home from a math competition, -his Dad had made him do- and he sees a person walking down the street in 10 below zero weather. He gets close enough to see it's Astrid Hofferson pulling someone. He stops beside her and asked, "Do you need a ride?"

"It's aright... I don't think he will appreciate it." Astrid nervously responds back. "And he doesn't like it when I ride with another guy."

Hiccup notices that the person she's talking about is Snotlout the famous linebacker for their high school, -Berk High- know as the Crusher by the football team. "Are you sure it's 10 below?" Hiccup states, "You may freeze to death out here."

"I'm sure" she says back. "I rather die out here, then die tomorrow morning by him" then pointed at the drunk Snotlout.

"At least let me call a cab for you guys" Hiccup says out the window.

"That will be fine... I guess" she can't help to keep from blushing at his responds.

Hiccup can't but notice her face turning red. " J-j-just let me... call" he can't help himself from stuttering and turns away from her.

Two months later

- Hiccup's POV

I pull into my schools parking lot. I found a spot near the front. It was the start of my Junior year of high school. I got to here early to see where my classes were at, and the best routes. I got in to my first block right when the bell rang. I looked at my schedule and it said these was physics. I looked around for a seat and saw all of them were full except for one. It was right next to Astrid. She saw me coming and turned away. I sat down and didn't say a word.

That whole hour was long enough as is, but not talking made it even longer. The bell rang and I couldn't be more excited to leave a classroom. I quickly walked to my next class to grab a front row seat. The next bell rang and the teacher started to explain what this class is about until the door started to open. And bound to know it was Astrid and her boyfriend Snotlout. I can't understand why she is seeing him for. Then I started to look around the room to see where there was open seats. There were two; one next to the right of me and the other to the left. I was doomed if I stayed where I was. So I got up and moved to the left, so I won't be in the middle of them. I see Astrid and her boyfriend -I hate saying that- coming to sit down. I hoped that she wouldn't sit next to me, but she did.

"Thank you" Astrid whispered to me.

I quickly said, "Y-y-you we-wel-welcome" that stupid stuttering came back. I heard her laugh a little bit.

After that class was done, the day went by fast. My mechanics class was easy sense I know a lot about it. My math class was easy too. Because they didn't have Snot or Astrid in them. The final bell rang and I started to walk out to my truck. I was about to get in till I notice the car parked beside me, had a sticker that says Astrid Hofferson the fastest runner in the world. I turned to look to see her standing behind me.

"I see you noticed my car" she says.

"Um... Yeah" I said in a nervous tone.

"I guess these is your car"

"Yeah it's a Ford"

"Oh... That's cool."

"It's a nice truck." I then notice that Snotlout was walking up. "Yep.. I got to go." After I said that, I quickly got into my truck to leave. But it was to late, he spotted me talking to her.

"Hey weirdo" Snotlout shout at me.

"Hey Snot" oh I was in a lot of trouble now.

"I told you not to call me that." Snotlout said angrily "And why were you talking to my girlfriend for."

"Hey just stop it Snot," Astrid pops in to the conversation "I was talking to him."

"It's alright I can just leave" I said. While thinking why Astrid -my dream girlfriend- didn't use any romance nicknames, but used Snot.

"Yeah you better leave," He said starring me down. Then turn to Astrid "Why no babe or honey, Asty?"

I got in my truck and took off as fast as I could. I was about to leave the parking lot, but I turned to look at where I left. And saw the unbelievable, Snotlout punching Astrid in the face. That drove me over the edge. I made a b-line to them and stopped right in front of them.

"What are you here for Dwe-" Snotlout said while being cut off.

I threw a punch straight at his face, knocking him out. Then I went to help Astrid up. "Are you okay?" I asked her.

"You didn't have to save me you know?" She said in a angry tone, "I could defend for my self. And now I have to take him to the nurse."

"Sorry, I just saw him punch you, and no man should treat you like that" I felt my heart stop. My only dream girlfriend hates me now.

Two weeks later

- Astrid's POV

It's Sunday before the my test in Physics. I haven't been to class because of Hiccup and Snots incident in the parking lot. And Snot is being meaner to me, I had to stay home to hide the bruises. I only am his girlfriend because it keeps me in the popular group. But I still have to keep my grades at all A's, for I can get into the college.

I have been up for 10 hours studying for the test. I still don't get some of the questions on the study guide that Ruffnut gave me. I starred at it for half an hour and don't get it. Then to add the stress I have Snot calling me every minute. I finally pick up my phone. "Hello."

"It's about time you answered your phone."

"Sorry, I have to study for Physics and so should you."

"Then maybe you should come over to my place and help me?"

"I know you are having a party," I can clearly hear music from his end.

"I'm not having a party."

"I can hear the music playing, I'm not dumb."

"What music," he said right when the music died down.

"I have to go."

"Why can you not come over?"

"I have to STUDY FOR PHYSICS!" I screamed into the phone.

"You don't have to scre-"

I hung up the phone before he finished. Then a minute later he called me again. I just ignored it. I started to think about how Hiccup was right saying, "No man should treat you like that." Well Snot was not a MAN, he was a boy. I knew Hiccup's dad was the Sheriff of Berk County. Before I could understand what I was doing. I picked up my phone and was calling his dad. After a couple of rings he picks up.

"Hello, this is Sheriff Stoick."

"Stoick it's Astrid."

"What's wrong Astrid?"

"Nothing really," but there was a show off boyfriend calling constantly and this stupid Physics test.

"Then, why did you call me for?"

"oh.. um..." I then realize why I was, "Does Hiccup have anything going on?"

"um.. No, he is at the house, why?"

"Just wondering"

"Astrid there is something wrong, why won't you tell me?"

He knew I lied, "I was going to study with him" that wasn't all a lie. I did want to study, but when I was talking to him I felt safer some reason.

"I think his free, but Astrid you have to know something."

"What is it?"

"He has feelings for you, ever since he saw you."

"Oh... I didn't know," I knew he couldn't see me, but I still smiled.

"So be careful around him, he is very finagle."

"I will be."

"Thank you, and have fun studying together."

"Okay bye," I hung up the phone. Then before I could come back to reality, I was on my way to Hiccup's house.

Chapter 2

The trip to Hiccup's house

My notes

Thank you all for supporting my first chapter of my first story. If your review make me laugh I will post it in the next chapter, but it has to be something about the story. This story couldn't be created if Foxy'sGirl didn't existed. This is going to contain some of her's story. Stages of Grief by Foxy'sGirl. She is the person who made me want to write my own story, just by reading her's. I hope you all go to read her stories, there are the best. I'm sorry for the late update I had it almost done, then my computer died. But here it is enjoy.

-Astrid's POV

I finally got to Hiccup's house. I started to walk up to his door and was about to knock, but before I could I heard a noise from his backyard. So I made a plan to scare him. I was going to go to the back, sneak in the back door and hide till he comes in. It was a perfect plan, not until I peaked round the house and saw a. WOLF. I didn't know what to do. My first thought was to yell at him. Which I did, "HICCUP RUN!."

"WHAT ARE you doing... clam down boy" Hiccup said, over the loud barking of the wolf.

Did he just say 'clam down boy'? Who tames a wolf for a pet? Is there apart of him that is crazy? Or is he just crazy? All of these question are going through my head has I was being pulled my out of reality. But I was brought back by Hiccup saying something.

"Aaaaaasssssstttttttttrrrrriiiiiidddddd," he said slowly, "Aassttyy."

That last name shocked me. Only Snot called me that, and I hated it. But when Hiccup says it, it makes me feel warm inside. "uhhh.." I couldn't put together words.

"What are you doing here?" He asked again.

"Uh.. I wanted to come over," that wasn't all a lie. I did want to come over to study, but not now. "Why do you have a wolf as a pet?" I had to ask it.

"He was trapped in one of my dad's wolf traps," He said sadly.

"Then why didn't you kill it?"

"I-I-I was go-go-going to," he said nervously

"Spit it out Hiccup." He had that stuttering problem.

"I just couldn't kill it," he came out with, "I'm not that type of person."

"That is fine Hicy," I felt sad for him

"What?"

"What?"

"You called me Hicy."

"Yeah, you called me Asty."

"Oh.. yeah I remember that," him saying it question, "Why did you want to come over for?"

"Oh... yeah," I was trying to put the words together, "I wanted to study for Physics."

"Why would you want to study with me?"

"I don't know.. because your are smart," that was only part of what I wanted to say. Only if I could only say, "I just want to be with you, because you make me feel warm and whole."

"Ummm.. okay then."

"What? You are smart."

"I know that, but what you said second."

"Did I just say that out loud?"

"Yep."

"Wow I'm stupid," I can believe my self that I just said I liked him out LOUD. I made a fool out of my self.

"You are not stupid Asty."

"There you go again with that Asty thing." I can't lie about how when he says that, it makes me feel fuzzy inside.

"Sorry... Astrid."

Now I feel guilty for say that, "Don't be sorry, I should say sorry."

"Why should you say your sorry for?"

"Because I had feeling for you every sense 6th Grade."

"Wow.. Astrid I didn't know," his shocked face told the rest.

"I know I have been with Snot every sense 7th Grade," I had to take a break to hold back my tears, but I couldn't. Then I feel Hiccup hug me tight.

"It's okay Astrid, I don't care for him all I care about is-"

I shoved off of him. "I don't need to be cared for."

"Sorry."

"Stop saying sorry and come here."

"What f-" Before he could finish, I grabbed him and kissed him deep. After couple of minutes of kissing he said,
"WOW,...that...was...amazing."

All I could do was just simile at him. Before I could finish he grabbed me and pulled me inside. We sat on his couch which is big enough for 12 people. He got up to garb his Physics book.

"So I guess you came over here to study for the physics test."

"Yeah, I did."

"So what problems are you stuck on?"

"Problem 5-8," Right when he started to look at the problems, I saw he was having trouble in math. "Are you having trouble in math? Hicy." I couldn't help my self.

"Oh, yep," he said that with a confused faced "I think it is kind of hard."

"Some of them are hard, but the rest are easy."

"Easy for you"

"Here lets make a deal, you help me and I help-"

"Deal"

"You didn't let me finish."

"Because I new what you were going to say. Astry"

"What's with the new nickname?"

"Sense Snot calls you Asty. I wanted my nickname for you. So I came up with Astry. Is it okay?"

"I love it."

"You do."

"Yes," then he hugged me again. But now I hugged back.

"Ow," he paused to rub his arm, "What was that fo-"

Before he could finish I punched him again. But before he could say 'ow' I grabbed him by the collar. And kissed him passionately, but for some reason this time was different. Was that his tongue. I quickly pushed us apart.

"I'm sorry."

"It's fine." I got up and ran out his door to my car and took off. Knowing I was forgoting0 my stuff there. All of this about making out with him was weird. I'm dating Snot any ways.

Quick Note

This next section will be in 2 POV. Hiccup will be the first one and Astrid will be the second one. It is about how the reflect what just happened between them.

That Night

Hiccup's POV

Early today was the most happiest and confused day of my life. First Astrid comes over unannounced and yells at me, then kisses me. Next when we kissed again, she pushed me away and ran out the door in a hurry. Plus she forgot her stuff here. Me knowing how every guy will go threw some girls stuff, to see want they have. That person wasn't me, all I did was find a box and put all of her stuff in it.

I sat on my couch next to Toothless (my wolf) and Pup my cat that I found outside during the winter. An hour went by an Astrid didn't come back. So I chosen to call my dad and see if he knew where Astrid lived.

The phone rang 4 times before he picked up, "Hello?"

"Dad it's Hiccup."

"What is wrong son?"

"I need you to see where some one lives."

"She lives next to the Diary Queen."

"Who live next to Diary Queen?"

"Son, I know you are talking about Astrid."

"How do you know?"

"She asked if you were home."

"Oh, thanks bye," Now it makes more sense.

"Bye son."

I hung up the phone and grabbed my keys. To head to Astrid's house.

Astrid's POV

I got home and went straight to my bedroom. I land on to my pillow and screamed as loud as I could. Why am I so confused? Why am I so dumb? Why did I kiss him? Why did I hug back? Why did I leave? Why didn't garb my stuff? Why did he tongue my bottom lip? The tongue. That is the most confusing part. What was he thinking? I need some one to talk to. I should talk to Ruffnut. I pulled out my phone and went through the contacts to find Ruff's number. I found it and pressed call. It rang 3 times and some one picked up.

"Hello," a male voice came through.

"Hello. Who is this?" Then I heard a moan and wrestling of the phone.

"Astrid?" Now it was Ruffnut.

"Ruff who was that?"

"That was Fishlegs."

Warning: _This is why I rated this story M. The next section will involve sex. If you do not like read sexual contain, then I would skip to the next double bar lines._

"Why are you talking to Fishlegs for?"

Another moan coming deep from Ruff's throat, "No reason, Why?"

"Because he is not popular."

"So, what if I like un popular people?"

I finally caught on why she was moaning about, "Are you guys having sex, while talking to me?"

"No, but yes. You were the one called me, while we were having sex." Another moan now coming from Fishlegs.

"Can you at least stop for a minute?"

"No, we already started. Whaaaaaaaaaaat do youuuuuuuuuuuuuuu need?"

"I need to talk about girl stuff."

"Can I call you backkkkkkk?"

"Sure, that's fine."

"Bye."

"Bye." But I don't hang up, because she normally does. But this time she didn't. And I was going to see how long it will last. I was in for a ride. So I held my phone to my ear.

"OHHHH YEAH FISHY. OOOOHHHH YEAH. RIGHT THERE FISH. RIGHT THERRRRREEEE."

Now it was Fishlegs moaning, "YOOOOOUUU LLLLLIIIIIIIKKKKEEE TTHATTT RRRUUUFFFYYY. YEAH RUFFY. YEAH. YEAH. YEAH. YEAH."

"YEAH FISHY. OHHHH FFIISSHHHYYY. FFFFFFFFFIIIIIIIIIISSSSSSSSSSHHHHHHHHYYYYYYYYYYY."

"OH RUFF I CAN HOLD ON, RRRRRRUUUUUUUUUUFFFFFFFFFFFFFFFFFFFFYYYYYYYYYYYYYYYYYY."

I had enough of this. "Next time can you guys hang up next time."

"Oh SHIT." followed by a click.

End of lemon section.

Astrid's POV

After that happen, I decided to go on a run. I got my running shoes on. Then planned out were is the best places to get a good run in. Oddly enough the best route was going by Hiccup's house. He just had to live on the best hill to run on and by the trails in the woods. I figured that I can grab my stuff when I'm done running.

I got out my bedroom. Went down the stairs to grab my blue stopwatch and bottle. Then went out my front door to start my run.

An hour later near Hiccup's house

Still Astrid's POV

I have be running for a hour now, realizing I was near Hiccup's house. So I thought to take the road up, because it was fast. I was approaching Tader Dr. I look back down the road and notice a black truck speeding down the street with cops following close behind. Then I realize it was Snotlout. I look forward to the road that lead to Hiccup's house. And saw him coming down it in his red truck. I quickly turned back around to see Snot coming closer and closer. Right when I heard him pass me, I heard a loud bang in the direction he was going. The were 10 cops that pass me before I got to the scene. I was stop by a cop.

"Lady you can't go over there," the cop said.

"Why not?"

"There has been an accident."

"Fine," He let me go and I started to look around and saw the sheriff. Huccip's dad. He was on the ground crying.

"STOICK!"

He looked at me and just ran to me and hug me.

"What is wrong?"

"It is Hiccup," he said while sobbing.

Author's Notes

_ What a way to end chapter 2 with the cliff hanger. I like to say thanks to the ones who view this. But a big thank to the reviews; Ami and Edu10. Thank you for reviewing my first chapter. And a very special thank you to Foxy'sGirl for writing the best stories I have read and to make me write my own story based of of her's._

PS. please tell me how that lemon went, I had to stop writing for 10 minutes because I couldn't stop laughing. Hopefully Chapter 3 The Hospital, will be up in two days. And if you want to add to the story, just PM me and I will see.

Author's notes

Hi. Thank you all again for viewing and sending in reviews. If you see something wrong or misspelling. Please either review and mention where it's at. Or you can PM me and tell me where it's at. Either way is fine by me. Please enjoy this chapter.

Chapter 3

The Hospital

Astrid's POV

"What is wrong?" I asked.

"It is Hiccup" Stoick said while sobbing

I peeked around the police cars to see a black truck in the middle of the road and no red truck in sight. "Where is Hiccup's truck at?"

Stoick pointed in the ditch on the other side of the road from us, "It's over there."

"Can I go see?"

All Stoick could do was nod.

I ran over there to see if his truck was there. It was there, all I did was stare at it. The truck was all crunched up, but the driver's side was fine. Right before I got closer an officer pulled me away as a tow truck driver started to pull the truck out. After 10 long, careful minutes, they had it on the street. An ambulance already came and pick up Snot. Which I didn't care about. I looked back over at the truck to see a fireman hold the Jaws of Life. My heart just stopped when I saw him bring it to Hiccup's truck. Then, they started to cut away the metal to free Hiccup. When they got enough metal out of the way. They were able to pull him out. Just as an ambulance arrived to take him to the hospital.

I felt a big hand garb my shoulder. I quickly turned around to see, it was Stoick. I immediately hugged him tight.

"Astrid, I need to tell you something."

I quickly asked, "What is it?"

"They told me if you didn't leave your stuff there, he would of died," the whole world stopped in front of me. Did he mean I just saved his son's life.

"How did I?"

"He called me before he left the house. And told me he was going to go see Fishlegs, but had to drop of your stuff," Stoick to a break to breath, "If he was going to Fishlegs's house he would go straight at got he by Snot and die. But, he turn to you house. Just by that turn, it saved his life."

I was shocked by this. I just saved his son's life by leaving my stuff.

"Do you want a ride home?" Stoick said while heading to his car.

"No," I said to fast.

"Alright just be safe," he was about to get in when I said.

"I want a ride to the hospital."

He starred at me for a minute. Then he smiled and said, "hurry up than." I ran to his car and was about to sit up front till I heard Stoick say, "you have to sit in the back."

"Fine. Then why don't you put handcuffs on me?"

"That is a good idea," before I could get another word in. He put handcuffs on me and put me in the back seat, "There you go."

I had to ask this question, "Can you turn on the sirens?"

He looked at me, then turned them on, "You happy?"

"Yes," but the funniest part of this trip to the hospital. Is when we passed Ruffnut's house. And she looked straight at me and shook her head. And Fishlegs fell over laughing at me.

A hour later, at the hospital.

We got to the hospital and we rushed in. At least Stoick did. I sat in the back of his cop car, with the sirens on, in handcuffs. I knew he will back, but I didn't know when. I waited there for 5 minutes and he didn't come back. From boredom I started to think how I got here and what is happening in my life. I had to go to Worlds in Australia in a month. I had to go to run laps to get ready. Which then I have to see Hiccup. Just saying his name made me feel warm inside. Wonder what it we feel like cuddled next to him. NO. I not the person to cuddle. Well... maybe with Hiccup, I will make a exception.

Banging on the window got me back to reality. I then remember I was in handcuff -which hurt very bad- and was in the back of Stoick's car. "ASTRID!" say some one.

"What do-" I turned to see it was Snot, "I don't want to talk to you."

"WHY ARE YOU IN A POLICE CAR?" Snot still yelling.

"Why do you care? And you can STOP YELLING."

"Because I'm your boyfriend."

"I'm..." I had to think. Should I stay with him till our Senior year is over or be with some one that makes me warm inside. It was an easy choose, "You are not my boyfriend."

"Why would you say that?"

"Because you don't care about me."

"I care about you."

"No you don't. Every single time a hot girl comes by you stare at her, not me."

"Every guy does that."

"Stop making excuses for your behavior."

"I'm not."

"Yes, you are Snotlout."

"I'm not through."

"Snotlout I'm done talking to you," I turn away from him the best I could with handcuffs on.

"I'm not, done talk to you."

"SNOT I'M DONE WITH YOU."

"WELL I AM NOT, YOU STUPID SLUT."

That word would of drove me crazy. But I had control this time. "DON'T CALL ME THAT." At least I thought I had.

Before I know it Snot open the door to garb me. So I had to kick him in the gut. "Stop kicking me. You have to learn a lesson." Snot said very angrily at me.

Just before he punched me, some one grabbed him by his neck and shoved him down to the ground. It was Stoick, I knew he will come back.

"You alright Astrid?" He asked nicely.

"Yeah, can you get this handcuffs off?"

"Oh.. yeah I will." He took them off while hold Snotlout down. Then put them on him. "Hey Astrid, I'm going to go drop him off at the station. Then come back, Okay?"

"Yeah, that will be fine."

"He is in room 222," he said before driving off.

How did he know I wanted to see Hiccup. I forgot he drove me here to see him. WAIT. I stopped to think, did he just see that all? I made a mental note of that. I walked in to the hospital and went to the elevator to go to the second floor. I got to the desk and asked if I could go see Hiccup.

"He is asleep, but I think he will make an exception for his sister," a nurse said.

Did Stoick say I was Hiccup's sister. Just as I was about to walk to his room. Fishlegs came running up to see if Hiccup was alright. A doctor stopped him. All I could heard was Fishlegs say, "I'm her boyfriend," and pointing at me. Then he rushed up beside me.

"Why did you say you were my boyfriend?" I had to ask and punch him.

"Ow.. and I want to see hiccup." He explained to me.

"Fine, but don't you every call me that."

"I wouldn't, I already have a girlfriend."

"Let me guess it's Ruffy," I said while remember to the phone call.

"How do you know that?"

"Remember that phone call?"

"Oh... yep. Did you tell any one?"

"No, but I am going to tell Hiccup though."

"Please don't."

"I will on one exception." I wanted to see Hiccup alone.

"What? I will do anything."

"Go home or to Ruffy."

"Fine, but don't say Ruffy, please?"

"Okay," with that said he left.

Ten minutes later

I got to room 222. Hiccup's room. I walked in to asleep Hiccup. He is even prettier when he is not awake. Right when I went to his bedside. He grabbed my hand and said, "Astry?"

"Yes, Hicy."

"I want to be with you. And if it takes getting-" before he could finish I leaned over and kissed him.

"It want take anything."

"What do you mean Astrid?"

I punched him. "Don't call me Astrid."

"What do I call you?"

"Astry," I kissed him again.

"You really do like that don't you?"

"Yes," I said to shyly.

"What do you mean?" He asked again.

"Mean what?"

"About how it won't take anything."

"Oh... that... I kind of..."

"Spit out."

I had to say it, "I broke up with Snot outside."

"Oh... Why would you do that?"

"I wanted to be with you."

"Astri... Astry you don't know how that feels."

"I can learn."

"Does that mean?"

"Yes. Hicy I'm your girlfriend and your my boyfriend."

"Wow."

"But don't call me that. Okay?"

"Yes, Astry." When he said that, he grabbed my head and pulled it down. To kiss me deeply. I was lost in that kiss.

Before you know it, I was on Hiccup's lap making out with him. This was better than when Snotlout and me make out. I started to pull his shirt up to feel his chest. His shirt fell off to the floor. I starred at his abs, that no one knew he had. I peeked up to see him feel guilty, so I grabbed his hair and smashed our faces together for a more passion make out session. Then the door opened, and I jumped off.

"Oh...Okay... I thought you guys aren't that far yet," it was Stoick.

"Really dad?" Hiccup asked.

"Sorry son, I was just coming to say goodnight."

"Your not staying dad?"

"No son, Astrid can though."

"Yeah, sure," I said.

"Okay night you two."

"Night," we both said at the same time.

When he walked out, I ran to the door and locked it. I ran back to Hiccup and jumped on him. Just as we were going to kiss, there was a knock. So I got up and opened the door. "Hello miss. I'm here to move Hiccup here to a different room," a nurse said.

"Okay," I responded.

"If you follow me?" The nurse asking me and I nodded. Then she went to Hiccup and helped him in a wheelchair.

Why does he need a wheelchair. Then, I saw he was missing his left foot. I look up at him and he look very sad. I asked the nurse, "What room he is going to?"

"Room 534," the nurse said.

"I can just take him if you want?" I wanted to take him.

"I don't see why not," she pushed Hiccup to me.

"Thank you," Hiccup said. Then he turned to me, "Why do you want to push me?"

I had to be honest, "I want to talk to you alone and I think it is kind of cute."

"Wow Astrid calling me cute." I punched him, "Ow- what was that for?"

"For not calling me Astry."

"Oh.. sorry Astry."

I punched him again, "Just shut up."

"Okay Astrid. Ow, Astry." For him saying Astry, I gave him a quick peck on the cheek. "Not the lips, I see," he said.

"We can finish it in your new room."

In the elevator

When we got into the elevator, there was no one in it. I locked Hiccup's wheelchair into place. Then, I sat on his lap and grabbed his hair. But this time Hiccup leaned forward and touch our lips. I moved my hips, which made him moan. I took the opportunity and moved my tongue into his mouth. Our tongues fought for control. Then to ruin the moment there was a ring. Tell us we arrived on the floor we wanted.

In Hiccup's new room

I open his door to see it looked like a small apartment. I rolled him in and helped him up in to the bed. I laid down beside him. "Hey Hicy, I want you to know I don't care that you lost your left leg."

"Okay?" Hiccup said.

I felt like I should explain, "It does not change how I think or how love about you Hicy."

"Did you just say love?"

"Yes, Hicy."

"Astry?"

"What is it?"

"I love you." This shocked me.

"Hicy?"

"What?"

"I love you too."

He look me in the eyes and grabbed my chin and kiss me on the lips. "Can you lay on the other side?"

"Why?"

"I want to sleep with you in my arms."

"Do you mean cuddle? If so YES."

"Wow."

"What is wrong Hicy?"

"Just how my world changed."

"Oh... Night."

"Night Astry." With that said we feel asleep.

Hiccup's POV

Hiccup's Dream

SETTING

Next day, it is sunny and Astrid and Snotlout are outside the door. And Hiccup is starring at the door listening.

"Hey Asty, did he fall for it?" Snotlout asked.

"Yeah he did. He thinks I am his girlfriend. It is so funny."

"We should go in there and make out in front of him."

"That will be funny. He will be shocked."

The door opens and I pretend to be asleep. "Oh look Asty his asleep."

"Hey I have idea."

"What is it?"

"We should have sex."

"You mean we are going to have sex for the first time?"

"Yes, Snoty."

"Okay.."

I open my eyes a little bit. To see Astrid undressing in front of me. She pulls her shirt off slowly teasing Snot. Then, Snot grabbed her and pushed her to the floor and ripped her shirt off with her bra. Then grabbed her shorts and unbutton them and pulled them down with her underwear. She giggled a little. She grabbed his shirt and pulled it off. After that she grabbed his pants and underwear and slid them off.

She grabbed his cock and began stoking it. "Ohhhh aassstttyyy." Stoking it a couple of more times she licked his tip. After three licks, she put his head in her mouth. "Ooooooooohhhhhhhhh AAAAAAASSSSSSSSSTTTTTTTTRRRRRRRYYYY."

She began bobbing up and down his length. Earning a moan from Snot every time she comes up. He grabbed her head and shove his full length in her mouth. She choked a little and let him do it more. I could hear her choking every time he push down on her head. I closed my eyes for a second and when I opened them she was about to sit on him.

"You ready Asty?"

"Yep."

They both moaned and they same time. Then they stopped. I heard Astrid say, "This is going to hurt." Just as she said that, she began to drop down. She scream so loud it shook my bed. Then I heard her yell, "HICCUP"

Warning: _Lemon area has passed and dream ends._

I woke up to Astrid shaking me. "Hello?" I asked.

"Hiccup you were sweating a lot." Astrid said very carefully.

"Astry?"

"What Hicy?"

"Please tell me that you truly care for me."

"I do, what will make you think that?"

"I had a bad dream."

"What was the dream about?"

"You having sex with Snotlout in front of me."

"Oh..." she was speechless till she smiled at me.

"What?"

Before I could say anything else she leaned down and kissed me on my lips. "If I didn't care about you would I do this," she then pulled her shirt off.

"Astry you don't have to go that far."

"Okay, and by the way I have to leave for Worlds in three weeks."

"Okay, that just means will have to do a lot of stuff in those three weeks."

"Yeah, but you will be in the hospital for a week."

"Darn, that just leaves two weeks."

"Yep."

"Let us hope that I get out of here."

"Yeah, anyways I have to leave for practice."

"Okay, will I see you tonight?"

"I don't know, maybe." When she finished talking she walked out.

Now I am here with my thoughts. I start to think back at when my life started to change. It started when I decided to be the manger for the cross country team, just to see my dream girlfriend more. My dream girlfriend. That is just a weird story. One time see didn't even know I existed, then next she is madly in love with me. Why did she even like me? I'm a huge change for her, she did date the school's famous linebacker for 5 years. What made her change he mind about me? These were questions I had to ask her. I voiced called me and that was what pulled me back it reality.

"What was that?" I asked.

"You have a visitor." a nurse said. The Fishlegs walked in.

"What's up, Fish?" I asked questionably.

"Nothing, did Astrid tell you what happen?" Fishlegs asked.

"Tell me about what?"

"Good, I can just tell you."

"What is it Fish."

"Well...me and Ruff had...sex."

"Good for you. And let me guess Astrid heard it over the phone."

"Yep, you guessed right. How did you know?"

"Ruff is a person who would forget to hang up their phone."

"Yeah, she is that person."

"So why did you come here for?" I was wondering.

"I was seeing if you were okay."

"Thanks for the concern of my health."

"Your welcomed."

"Anyways... how are you and Ruff doing?"

"We are doing fine. I guess."

"Just how did you get a girlfriend before me?"

"I don't know. Chance of luck. She did make the first move."

"Really, you were post to make it."

"I know, it's just..."

"Just what?"

"I didn't know she liked me."

"Oh..."

"So, what's up with Astrid?" He just had to flip the awkwardness to me.

"What do you mean?"

"How she wanted to see you alone."

"She wanted to see me 'alone'?"

"Yes, she made me leave."

"Wow. My life is changing," I didn't mean to say that out loud.

"What do you mean 'changing'?"

"How my dream girl hated to me. Then five years later, she is in love with me."

"Did she say that?"

"Yeah."

"Wow, you are some lucky dude."

I had to change the subject, before Fish gets any ideas. "Can I tell you something Fish? Man to Man."

"Sure, what is it?"

"For some reason I don't trust her."

"Why don't you?"

"I had a dream.." I didn't want to say the details of it.

"About what?"

"Long story, short. I saw her with Snot."

"What were they doing?" Curse his curiosity.

"They were.." I couldn't say it, so I gestured with my hands.

"Oh...OH.. I see. I could look into that for you, if you want?"

"That will be very helpful. Just keep it a secret."

"I will. See you later."

"Okay, bye." And with that he left the room and I was left by myself again.

That night

There was a bathroom in my room. So I was able to go by myself. It took longer than normal, but what shocked me is when I walked -well waddled- out to see Astrid and my dad?

They were talking to each other. But before I could get close enough to hear, Astrid saw me. "Hey, there he is." She rushed over to me and hugged me. Then, of course she punched me.

"OW- what was that for?"

"For not saying hi and not calling me Astry." How did she know I didn't call her Astry? Can she read my mind?

"How did you-" before I could finish, she grabbed my collar and kissed me.

"I just know."

"Well I guess I should leave you guys alone." Stoick said, which made us turn bright red and separate.

"Sorry Dad."

"It's fine son."

"Sorry Sheriff," Astry said embarrassed. _I'm afraid of saying Astrid_, I thought.

"Call me Stoick."

"Okay, Stoick." Then he left. Right as the door shut she punched me. "Call me Astry," she whispered to me.

How is she reading mind? I have to stop saying Astrid and say Astry. Then she punched me again. ASTRY. ASTRY. ASTRY. ASTRY. I made a note. Now none of my secrets are safe.

I was brought back to reality by Astry screaming at me. "HHHIIICCUUPPPP," I don't know what possessed me to punch her, but I did. "OW- What was that for Hicy?"

"You didn't call me Hicy before, but now-" before I finish, I gave her a quick peck on the lips. "That is for calling me Hicy."

"Are you okay?"

"Yeah, why?"

"You are acting funny. I love it."

Before I know if haved moved, Astry picked me up and placed me down on the bed. Then she jumped on top of me and started kissing me. This was not like our other make out sessions, this one was more intense and passionate. I placed my hands on her waist and I could feel her smile. I moved my hands up her sides and pulling her shirt half off, before she stopped. "What's wrong Astry?" I asked politely.

"Maybe we shouldn't do this."

"Why? Is it me?"

"No it's not you, it's just..."

"It's just what?"

"I-i-i-i am..."

"I am what?"

"I'm afraid, okay. Are you happy now?" She hopped off of me and was about to walk out the door.

"Astry, what are you afraid of? I know it's not sex, because I heard you and Snotlout had it all the time." I did hear people talking about them a lot.

"That's it. We never did, he just said we did."

"What your telling me you never had-" I stopped because I saw her crying. So I waddled over to her and hugged her tight.

She pushed me off and said, "I don't need your help."

"Astry I care for you, I will do anything just to see you be happy."

"You will," she said while sobbing.

"Yes, anything."

"Would you cud-."

"Astry I know you want to act tough around people. And I know you are more then that. Your caring, sweet, smart, and many others. Most of all I know you like to cuddle with me, but your afraid of me not caring for you if you show that side of you. I will always care for you."

"Awww Hicy. Do you mean all of that?"

"Yes, even if it means you being with someone else. I will always care for you and I want you to be happy."

"That's so sweet of you. Hicy?"

"What my delicious Astry?"

"Can we just cuddle for tonight?"

"Yes, what ever makes you happy."

With that said, we walked over to the bed and cuddle in each other arms. So after that we fell asleep.

Astrid's POV

I woke up first. I looked over at Hiccup and he looked very pale. I tried to wake him, but he didn't wake up. I immediately called for a doctor.

A doctor rushed in and took one look at Hiccup. "Miss you have to get out of here."

"Why?" I asked. Before he could answer, I was pushed out of the room.

They stopped pushing me when we got to the waiting room. I saw Stoick there. So I ran over to him, he was crying.

"Astrid what is wrong my son?" He asked through a break from crying.

"I don't know. I woke up and he was very pale." I responded.

Author's Notes

That was a fun chapter to write. I just love putting cliff hangers in my story. This is my longest one I have wrote. It is 18 pages long and over 4,000 words. If you like it to be long, say it and I will plan on it. But if I do that, it means later updates. So you guys choose long or short.

_ Next update will be about Astrid going to Australia. And you get to find out what happened to Hiccup. And if it can be undone._

_ PS. Just to tell you guys, I am writing these on the spot. So after this is posted I will be writing next chapter â€“ The Race For Life-. If you want something to happen to the characters. You can message me and I may add it to the story. If you do give me something, I will give you credit on it. If you haven't see that I am making this long, I am. I'm trying to reach four thousand, two hundred and fifty words in this story. I'm so close, that I am about to jump out off my seat. I should just stop making this longer. So this is the last sentence I will write for this chapter._

Author's Notes

_ I know it has been a long time since I updated last. School just got in the way, and I just got back from vacation. I got a review on this story and it made me want to come back to this story. I have been listening to songs that I want to put in here to increase the emotions to the couple. I now have it down and plan on focusing on adding some more chapters to this story._

 I don't own; HTTYD or Right in by Skrillex or Goodbye my lover by James Blunt (I know it's weird song, but it fits in this part)

Chapter 4: Last Moments

Astrid's POV

Just sitting in the waiting room to see what is wrong with Hiccup, is making me break down. I began to think what it could be and how I could of stopped it. OH GOD. I was becoming soft now, how could these happen to me. Why me? Why now? Why couldn't these happen after Worlds? As I was going on and on with questions, the doctor walked over to us.

"I have some bad news," the doc said, while looking at the ground. Could Hiccup be dead? What would I do? I just couldn't handle that.

"What is it Doctor?" Stoick asked, as I was coming back to reality.

"I'm sorry to say your son is..." Before he could finish a nurse came out and yelled for him. "I will be right back," he said before running off.

This got me thinking about what he said. Was Hiccup dead or alive? Before I knew what was happening, I felt a big hand land on my shoulder. "Astrid it's alright," Stoick said to me.

I now notice I was crying, "H-h-how co-co-could you think it is alright." I said while sobbing.

"I just know. I just know." He said to comfort me. Which worked out perfectly.

A couple of minutes later, the doctor came back out. "Sorry for that. But on to the news, we thought we've lost him... But there is a little sign of life in him..."

"Oh thank god," I blurted out, before he finished.

"But it is slowly decreasing as we speak..." _Oh god, he was really dieing _I thought to myself. "We have put him on life support, but I think this is the last you will get to talk to him." The doctor finished and said we could see him now.

As Stoick and I walked over to Hiccup's room, Stoick told me to stay out for he can talk to him alone. I agreed to this. While waiting, I decided to listen to some music. I played the first song on my phone (Right In by Skrillex) and sung along in my head.

Right In by Skrillex

Right, Right in, Right, Right in,

Right, Right in, Right, Right in,

Right, Right in, Right, Right,

Right, Right in,

It's another one!,

Come on!

Why are is he taking so long, I thought.

Right Right Right Right,

Right Right Right Right,

I do believe, I do believe, I do believe,

Right, Right in, Right, Right in,

Right, Right in, Right, Right in,

Right, Right in,Right, Right,

Right, Right in,

It's another one!,

Come on!

Right Right Right Right,

Right Right Right Right,

I do believe, I do believe,

I do believe, I do believe,

Right, Right in, Right, Right in,

Right, Right in, Right, Right in.

Finally Stoick was done with Hiccup and I walked in. While forgetting to turn off my music.

Just walking in to see Hiccup's face, made me break down again. "How could you do this to Hiccup?" Knowing he wouldn't answer. I grabbed his hand and begged, " Please Hiccup, please don't leave me."

Then I heard my phone start to play a song (Goodbye My Lover By James Blunt). It was the song my Dad played when my mom was dieing. I got an idea, if I sing to Hiccup will he come back to me? It was worth a try, so I began singing the song to him.

There were only some parts I wanted to sing. "Did I disappoint you, Or let you down?... Should I be felling guilty,... or let the judges frown?.. The I saw the end, Before we'd begun,... Yes I saw you were _happy_, and I knew we had won."

"It may be over, But it won't stop there, I am here for you." These was the part that made me cry, "I've kissed your lips and held your head. Shared your dreams and shared your bed."

"I know you well, I know your smell. I've been addicted to you."

These got me to my knees crying, "Goodbye my lover. Goodbye my friend. You have been the one,... you have been the one for me." With that said, I let it play out while hold his hand.

When the song ended, I got up from the ground. And let go of his hand, watching it fall limp. I then leaned over and kissed him on the lips for a good five seconds. And said, "Goodbye Hiccup."

Why did Stoick have to tell me these right before I take off? How did he come to the decision so fast? How can I race at Worlds?

"Miss? Can you put your phone away. Thanks." A flight attendant asked.

This took me out of question land, "Sure." I responded to her.

_X-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-X_

Hiccup's POV

(Yes, I didn't have Hiccup died, but Astrid doesn't know. Or is he?)

"_Dad don't you think this is to much? How is she going to react to this? OH GOD, is this to much? It is, I'm not ready for this. Why is it so hard?" _Hiccup thought he said it to himself, but said it to his dad.

"Hiccup, stop freakin' out. She will love it. And it many be hard now, but it will be better later." Stoick said to make his son happier.

"Of course. You just know everything don't you?"

"Son, stop bein' an ass." Stoick said growing angrier with his son.

"Why did you lie to her for?"

"It was your idea."

"True. When have my ideas worked out?"

"That is true too Hiccup. But you always have to try."

After a awkward 5 minutes of silence. Hiccup finally spoken, "How is this going to work?"

"What do you mean by 'work'?" Stoick questioned his son.

"How am I going to tell her that I'm not dead and I just lied to you?"

"I don't know son. Can you do me a favor?"

"What is it dad?"

"Can you please wake up?"

"I'm awake. How could I wake up if I am..." Before I could finish there was this bright light.

I closed my eyes fast and reopen them to see my dad crying on my lap. This was weird, he never cries. Why now? "What's wrong dad?" I asked him, then realizing that I am in a hospital room. "Why am I at the hospital?"

My dad's face showed a sign of shock. I saw him blink a couple of times and rub his eyes. "Is that you Hiccup?"

"Yeah, who else were you expecting?"

"Oh my god, I can't believe this." Before I could ask him, he pulled me into a hug. Which confused me more.

"Dad your kind of hurting me."

"Sorry son, I just thought you were died. We were about to pull the plug."

"Why would you do that?" I just had to ask.

"The doctors said 'there is no point to continue'. So I had no choice."

Then I realized Astrid isn't here, "Where's Astrid at?"

"She had to go to Worlds with Gobber. Why?"

"When did they leave?"

"I think there in the air now. Why Hiccup?"

"I need to see her." I said while trying to get up, but get pushed back down by my dad.

"Oh no you don't."

"Dad you don't understand. I need to see her."

"Well I guess that has to wait then." Stoick going angrier with his son.

"Would you at least hand me my phone?"

"Sure, where is it?"

"It is in my jacket." I asked, as I saw my dad walk over to it.

Stoick picks up Hiccup's jacket from the chair. I was about to grab it when a small box fell out.

_I forgot about the ring, I got for Astrid to show how much I cared for her, _I thought.

"Hiccup. What is this?" Stoick asked while holding the box in his big hand.

"Ummmm... It's a gift I got for Astrid." I slowly said to my dad.

"You know this is a little to early to..." Before he could finish, I cut him off.

"DAD. It isn't that type of ring. I just wanted to give her a gift, before she went to Worlds." I quickly said.

"Am I interrupting anything?" My doctor asked.

"No, Doc what's up?" I asked him.

"Nothing, really. Just a busy day. How about you?" The Doc asked.

"Same, just been sleeping."

"Good. Well I came here with good and bad news. Which do you want to know first?" He asked.

"I guess the good news." I said in a weird tone.

"The good news is that you are coming back to normal and you may get to leave tomorrow." He said in a happy tone.

"That's good. How about the bad news?" I asked.

"The bad news is that I wouldn't see you anymore."

_He must like me as a patient, _I thought to myself.

"I guess this is a goodbye." My Doc said.

Before he could leave, I asked him his name and he said 'Ingerman'.

The Next Day

Hiccup's POV

This is the day I get to leave and go see Astrid. I want to see her so badly, in fact it was killing me just sitting here.

After 10 more minutes I am finally on my way home. Then I idea came across my mind. "Hey Dad can I ask you a question?"

"Sure, what is it?"

"Can we fly to..." Before I was finished, my dad had to cut me off.

"I knew you were going to ask that question. And I already have it planned out."

"What do you mean by 'planned out'?"

"We are flying on my jet and get there a couple hours before her race starts."

"When do we leave?" I said very happily.

"We leave in a couple of minutes."

_Astrid my love I'm coming for you, _I thought.

X-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-X

16 Hours Later

My Dad and I, have been on his jet for 16 hours and are about to land in Australia. I hope I haven't missed here race. I just want to be there to cheer here on.

_X-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-X_

Right when we landed I checked my phone to she if she text me (Stoick has been using Hiccup's phone). There is no text from her. Which got my hopes up that they didn't start yet.

Right before I put my phone away, it rang. It said, 'About to start race. Wish for me'. _I am going to miss here race,_ I thought.

X-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-X

We get to the car rental place and they said, "We only have 4c coupe or a campervan."

I begged my dad to get the 4c coupe. Which he did, and that is how I got to go 250 km/hr (around 155 mi/hr) down the highway.

X-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-x-X

When we got to the race, they were about to finish. So I quickly ran for the finish line, to see Astrid finish.

I got there right at the moment she finished. Now is the time to think of something to say instead of, "Hey, I am not died and I lied to you".

I made up my mind, to just say hey to her. So I walked up to her while she was drinking her water and said, "Hey, nice race." That was really cheesy to say.

"Thanks..." She turned to look at me and turned her head. "Hiccup?"

"Yep that's my name."

"HICCUP." She said before she decided to...

I like to thank Angryhenry for reviewing chapter 4.

If you want to be mentioned in this story review and I will give a shout out to you.

6. Sneak Peek to Chapter 6

Here is a sneak peek to the 10,000 word chapter coming up.

Hiccup's POV

"Hiccup" Astrid said. Oh god what did I put myself into, I thought before she pushed me to the ground. She began to make out with me in front of everyone. I didn't mind at all, but this is not normal Astrid here.

"We are not aloneâ€¦. Astrid" I stated while breaking the kiss.

She then stopped and stared at me for a couple of minutes. Then said, "Can we go?"

"What about the race?"

"I don't care about that right now." She paused for a second then said, "I just want to be with you."

Her saying that made my heart grow, "I guess we can."

We started to walking to the car, till I saw my dad. "Oh.. Heyâ€¦. dad."

What surprised me is when he handed me the keys and said he will get a cab.

That is how I got to drive down the back roads of Australia. "Hey, Hiccup?" Astrid asked in a shy tone.

"What is the problem M'lady?" I asked.

"Could you goâ€¦" Before she could finish her statement, I pulled the car to face the mountains and stop. "This is beautiful" Astrid stare in pure amazement.

If you want to see what they are seeing look at the cover art of this story.

Now in Third person pov

"It isâ€¦." Hiccup could not help himself, "I seen better."

Astrid started to blush, knowing what he meant by 'better'. Then the sound of the wildlife around them came into the car. Then Hiccup yelled after Astrid punched him in the arm. "Why do you always punch me for?" Hiccup asked Astrid while making a baby face at her.

Astrid just rolled her shoulders and said, "I don't know, I just guess you deserved it."

"Great, I came here to get you to fall back in love with me. I guess now that is not happening." Hiccup rambled.

Just as he was about to start the car back up, Astrid grabbed his hand to stop him. "Hiccup, I didn't mean it that way." Hiccup just stared at her without speaking, "The only reason I'm mad is that you didn't tell me the you were alive, before you came over here. And now you are just making it worse by saying you came around the world to get me to fall back in love with you."

Just as Astrid stop, Hiccup began to speak, "I would do anything to get your love back."

Then it was Astrid's turn, "I know you will. That is the reason I love you for. You will do anything to be with me. All I want is to be with you"

"Then why are you mad?"

"Because Hiccup."

"Because why?" He asked her.

"Just because." Astrid was getting madder by the minute.

"Why?" Hiccup just had to know why.

"Can you shut up already?" Astrid was about to jump out of the car and leave him. But Hiccup decided to talk.

"I thought you could trust me. But now I guess not."

"That's it" That was all Astrid needed to say as she step out of the car and slammed the door shut.

"Astrid? Where are you going?"

"Any place without you."

Hiccup now knew he just trashed his relationship with Astrid. Now what will his dad and Gobber think when he comes back without Astrid.

Hiccup turn the car on and backed up to the road. Then decided to head back to the hotel to lay down and forget this every happen. Just as he was a mile away from where he pulled off. He realized Astrid is walking alone down the road. He still was in love with her and didn't want her to be hurt.

"I need to find her" Hiccup said to himself. That is when he turned the car around, to go after Astrid.

Chapter 5 Part 2.1

"HICCUP" She said before she decided to â€¦..

I know this is later then I planned on posting it, but my life got in the way and this was pushed off to the side. I will try to make time to write and post for you guys. Hope you enjoy and if you think about write a story. Go at it, the worst thing that can happen is people don't like. But who cares as long as you like it. That is all that matters.

Now lets get back to the story.

Hiccup's POV

"Hiccup" Astrid said. _Oh god what did I put myself into_, I thought before she pushed me to the ground. She began to make out with me in front of everyone. I didn't mind at all, but this is not normal Astrid here.

"We are not aloneâ€¦. Astrid" I stated while breaking the kiss.

She then stopped and stared at me for a couple of minutes. Then said, "Can we go?"

"What about the race?"

"I don't care about that right now." She paused for a second then said, "I just want to be with you."

Her saying that made my heart grow, "I guess we can."

We started to walking to the car, till I saw my dad. "Oh.. Heyâ€¦. dad."

What surprised me is when he handed me the keys and said he will get a cab.

That is how I got to drive down the back roads of Australia. "Hey, Hiccup?" Astrid asked in a shy tone.

"What is the problem M'lady?" I asked.

"Could you goâ€¦" Before she could finish her statement, I pulled the car to face the mountains and stop. "This is beautiful" Astrid stare in pure amazement.

If you want to see what they are seeing look at the cover art of this story.

Now in Third person pov

"It isâ€¦." Hiccup could not help himself, "I seen better."

Astrid started to blush, knowing what he meant by 'better'. Then the sound of the wildlife around them came into the car. Then Hiccup yelled after Astrid punched him in the arm. "Why do you always punch me for?" Hiccup asked Astrid while making a baby face at her.

Astrid just rolled her shoulders and said, "I don't know, I just guess you deserved it."

"Great, I came here to get you to fall back in love with me. I guess now that is not happening." Hiccup rambled.

Just as he was about to start the car back up, Astrid grabbed his hand to stop him. "Hiccup, I didn't mean it that way." Hiccup just stared at her without speaking, "The only reason I'm mad is that you didn't tell me the you were alive, before you came over here. And now you are just making it worse by saying you came around the world to get me to fall back in love with you."

Just as Astrid stop, Hiccup began to speak, "I would do anything to get your love back."

Then it was Astrid's turn, "I know you will. That is the reason I love you for. You will do anything to be with me. All I want is to be with you"

"Then why are you mad?"

"Because Hiccup."

"Because why?" He asked her.

"Just because." Astrid was getting madder by the minute.

"Why?" Hiccup just had to know why.

"Can you shut up already?" Astrid was about to jump out of the car and leave him. But Hiccup decided to talk.

"I thought you could trust me. But now I guess not."

"That's it" That was all Astrid needed to say as she step out of the car and slammed the door shut.

"Astrid? Where are you going?"

"Any place without you."

Hiccup now knew he just trashed his relationship with Astrid. Now what will his dad and Gobber think when he comes back without Astrid.

Hiccup turn the car on and backed up to the road. Then decided to head back to the hotel to lay down and forget this ever happen. Just as he was a mile away from where he pulled off. He realized Astrid is walking alone down the road. He still was in love with her and didn't want her to be hurt.

"I need to find her" Hiccup said to himself. That is when he turned the car around, to go after Astrid.

Now in Astrid's POV

back to when she was walking away from Hiccup

He just drives me crazy with his questions. Why does he get so curious with me?

-_Tires spinning is heard behind her_-

'_Great now he just drives away. What a great boyfriend he is'_. "At Least it is pretty out here" I said aloud.

Then a group of boys are walking on the road to her. _Great now I have to deal with them_. "ah' mates, look at what we have here." One of the five boys said. "It looks like someone is lost there way" Another one stated.

"Just leave me alone, you stupid pigs." I said to all five of them.

"Why would you call us 'pigs' for?" The leader ask. But before I could respond he told his friends to grab me.

I was shoved to the ground by them. "Ich denke, wir sollten ihr eine Lektion zu erteilen." I have no idea what they were saying to each other. But I found out quickly by one of the boys pulling on my shorts. My shorts were thrown to the side. Then hands grabbed my underwear and started to pull them down. As my underwear were in a pile with my shorts, I failed to realize that the five boys took their pants off. Just as one of the was lower his dick to my mouth, I heard tires sliding to a stop. Then out of the blue the boy on top of me was pushed into the others and I heard a voice.

"Astrid come on." It was Hiccup. I couldn't believe my luck that he turned around and saved me. I quickly grabbed my underwear and shorts, then jumped it to the car.

Hiccup turned the car around and took off throwing little rocks at the boys.

Now to third person POV

Hiccup was driving down the road back to the hotel. "Hiccup?" "Astrid?" They both said at the same time.

"You go first Astrid?"

"Ok, Are you still mad at me?"

"To tell you the truth Astrid.." Astrid then waved her hand to tell him to continue. "I could never be mad at you, I was just mad at myself."

"Why were you mad?"

"It's justâ€¦ I just don't deserve to be your boyfriend" Hiccup speaked in a hush voice and stared straight at the road.

"Are you saying you want to break up with me?"

"Kind of, but can we still be friends?" Hiccup asked.

"I can't believe you." That was all they said, till they came to the hotel.

Couple Months later

Hiccup's POV

It has been two months since Astrid and me have went our different ways. It was the worst two months of my life, but I have a plan.

This is the day I graduate high school. My whole class is in a line and Astrid was right behind me. GOD she looks so beautiful. I hope my plan works.

As one by one of my classmates went across the stage, my nerves increased. Then it was my turn to go across and receive my diploma.

I reach out to shake hands with the adults. I leaned in to my principal and said, "Can you call Astrid up?"

"I will once you walk off the stage" he replied.

"I kind of have to stay up here" I said to him.

"Okay. I know what you're going to do. Are you sure your read?" He asked.

I just nod my head. Then Astrid's name was call and she walked up to me.

Then everything went silent. I got really nervous and almost fell over, but I landed on knee. It's now or never.

"Astry, you been my dream girl since the beginning of time. And all I want is to spend the rest of my life with you. So will you make me the greatest and happiest guy in the world. Astry will you marry me?"

I pulled out a small box and opened it. Inside is the ring I made for her, it was gold and silver twisted together with a huge diamond in the middle.

Astrid just stood there and didn't say a word. Till she spoke up and said, "...

Astrid's POV

Back to the start of their graduation

I'm so happy high school is over. Now all I have to is walk across a stage, shake hands and walk off. This is going to easy.

Now came the part where we all line up. I quickly got into place. Then Hiccup walk right in front of me and stood there.

I forgot we both have "H" in our last names. Now I have to deal with him. And was it just me or did he just get taller and slimmer. And god that ass of his is so nice. I shake my head to get rid of my thoughts of him. I should be hating him, not checking him out.

But I could not say I didn't love him. Even though he broke up with me, I was still in love with him.

Then I heard his name get called. He started to walk up to the stage. My eyes look back down to his butt. His ass is just asking to be squeezed.

Then he stopped. Why was he standing there. Next I heard my name. So I just forgot about him and walk across the stage.

When I approached Hiccup he was shaking. Then he fell to one knee. I was about to help him up before he started to talk. I quickly realize I should listen to him.

"So will you make me the greatest and happiest guy in the world. Astry will you marry me?" He asked me.

Oh god. Why now? Why would he choose to do it now, here? Oh god he is staring at me. What should I say? I didn't want to break his heart. But I didn't want to say the wrong answer.

I then realize I would rather spend the rest of my life loving him in his arms than from afar.

So I made up my mind, "Hiccup there is no way I'm going to pass you by"

Back to Hiccup's POV

"What? Is that a yes?"

"Yes, Hiccup it is a yes."

I couldn't believe my luck. Right after I put the ring on her finger, the crowd burst out clapping.

These is truly going to be the best day of my life and only second to the wedding day.

As we walk off the stage to our seats. I sat down first and then I felt Astrid's head land on my shoulder and her hand on my chest.

"Hiccup?"

"What is it my fiancÃ©e?" Was it too early to call her that.

Astrid blushing? That never happens, I must be dreaming. These all makes since. It is all just a dream. "Do you still love me?" Astrid asked me.

I knew these must be a dream. So I pulled her head to face mine and leaned in. I gave her the most passion filled kiss I ever gave to her. But it only last thirty seconds till Astrid pushed me away.

"You didn't answer my question?" She said while trying not to smile.

"Didn't I just show you?" She just shakes her head no. "Then Astrid I guess I have all my life to show you." Astrid just stared at me. "Fine, yes Astrid I'm still in love with you and that is why your my fiancÃ©e."

"I love you, fiancÃ©." Astrid said while smiling.

"I love you too, fiancÃ©e." With that we leaned into each other and waited for the graduation to be over.

After graduation

Astrid and me walked out to see our parents talking to each other. My dad waved at me and told me to come over. "What's up Dad?"

"Son, why didn't you tell us you were proposing to her?" My dad asked me.

All I did was roll my shoulders, "Wanted it to be a surprise. And is it okay if Astrid and me hang out at the house?" He nodded and waved me off, I turn to grab Astrid's hand, but instead fell into a kiss. "Do you want to go to my house?"

"Sure why not."

"Are you driving or am I" Astrid asked me.

"I can drive, if you don't mind leaving your car here."

"I guess I can just follow you. I don't really want to leave my car here."

"I will walk you to your car. Do you remember where you parked?" I knew she would remember, but I wanted to make sure.

"Yeah I remember, it right next to the same car."

That is when we walked up to her car, I realize we both have the same type of car. "Here we are." Astrid stated.

"Thisâ€¦ This is your car?" I asked while pointing at the car.

"Yes Hiccup. Like I said before." Then she look to my car next to her's. "I parked here because some other kid had the same car as me, but it is older than mine." What a lucky day for me. I couldn't believe that we had the same type of car. How could this of happen? It has to be a dream for sure.

"Earth to Hiccup. Are you still here?" Astrid said. I then realized that I zoned out.

"Yup, I am here." I quickly responded.

"So where is your car at? I could drive you to it, if you want?" She asked.

"It's fine. I can walk to it." I want to play with her a little.

"Fine. At least tell me where you parked." Astrid said in an angry tone.

"You don't have to get mad." I then realized I should stop playing with her. "Astry my car is right here." I said while pointing at my car.

"Hiccup I know that isn't your car. Where is it?" Astrid said growing more angry.

"Astry it is my car see." I stated as I got in the car and started it.

"Ohâ€¦. I guess it is." Then there was a pause before she talked again. "I'm sorry Hiccup. I just thought you wouldn't own something like this."

"It's fine Astry." I just had to ask her to race to my house.

"Sure I guess. Do you live at the same house?"

"Yup."

Skip to a stop light 2 miles away from Hiccup's house.

I rolled down my window and Astrid did the same. "When the light turns green, first one to my house wins."

"What will I win?" Astrid asked me.

"We will betâ€¦. the person that wins gets to be on top." The look on her face was priceless.

"Deal." She replied while blushing. Then came back with a comeback, "you better be ready to be on the bottom.

Now it was my turn to blush. I was only joking, but the thought of Astrid and me having sex when we get to my house. Just got me really excited.

Just before the light turned green I looked to my right to see Astrid staring at the light. Right as I turn back to the light it turn green and we took off.

I soon saw Astrid pulling ahead of me. Then came a red light and we both slided to a stop. I look at Astrid and she look at me with a simile. Then the light turn and we took off, but I decided to turn left and take the back way.

I quickly came up to my house and saw Astrid wasn't there yet. I came up with a plan to park my car in the garage and scare her.

I had to punch in the numbers on the keypad, because my dad didn't give me a garage opener. Then just as the door got to my head, someone grabbed me and pulled me in the garage.

Unknown to me, Astrid beat me home and parked in my garage. "Astridâ€¦. How you get in her?"

"You don't remember?"

"I got to say no." I don't ever remember telling Astrid my garage code.

"It was beforeâ€¦. your problem." Astrid said in a quiet tone.

Now it all came back to me.

Hiccup's Memory

_It was the day before Astrid has to leave for Worlds and Hiccup's problem. We see them in Hiccup's bed after a heated make-out session._

"Astry do you really have to go tomorrow?"

"Yes I do, Hiccup." Astrid said in a annoyed tone.

"But I don't get to snuggle with my Astry." I said in the most sad way possible.

"You are too good for your own good. You know that?"

"Yes, but I'm never too good for you." I really wanted her to stay.

"There you go again, and stop using the puppy dog face at me. It never works."

"Who says that?"

"I do." Astrid said in a mad tone.

"Do I at least get to drive you to the airport?" If I couldn't get her to stay. The next best thing is to spend as much time with her.

"No, Gobber is taking me. And by the way what is your garage code?"

"It's 6487. Can you at least spend the night with me?" I just had to try.

"Fine. I guess I can do that. I'm already pack."

"YEAH! Now I can have my Astry for the night to cuddle with." I said in a child's voice.

"Could you be any more childlike?" Astrid said before we cuddled up tight for the night.

Memory ends

"Now I remember it." I looked around and couldn't see Astrid anywhere. "Where did you go?"

I began looking around the house, while calling out her name. Then I heard giggling coming from my room. So I 'ran' up there.

I could not believe my eyes. Just as I walked into my room Astrid was there. She was only in her underwear. And she just had to wear that black lace underwear today.

"God Astry you lookâ€¦." I just could come up with a word to describe her.

"What do I look like Hiccy?" Astrid said, then she turned away from me. "I know I'm not perfect. And that you could go be with someone better than me."

I couldn't believe she was talking that bad about herself. My brain couldn't come up with anything to say. So I just did what can naturally.

I went up to her and put my hand on her chin. I turned her to face me. I quickly lean in to her and gave her the most passionate kiss I could ever give her.

After I broke the kiss I told her that I loved her and that is no word that can describe her.

"I love you too, Hiccy." She said with a smile across her face.

LEMON AREA

If you don't like it skip to next double lines

Next thing I know, I am thrown on my bed with Astrid on top of me.

"Hiccy?"

"What is it Mrs. Haddock?" Astrid blushed after hearing me saying that.

"Could Mr. Haddock be tied to the bed?" She said still blushing,

"You really want to be that kinky?" Astrid answered my question with a nod. "I guess I couldâ€¦" I was cut off by Astrid giggling and running off.

"Astrid? Where are you going?" I was about to get up before she came back in.

"Stay!" She said in a ordering tone.

I obeyed her order. Who would not obey her. It wasn't 5 minutes later, when she came back with rope.

"Strip down!" She said in the same tone as before.

I quickly stripped down to nothing and crawled back onto my bed. In a matter of seconds I was on my back and my hands tied together, then hooked to the bed. Then I look down and she tied my legs apart to each of the wooden poles. As I looked back up I saw Astrid's face. She had this evil look in her eyes.

"You are mine now!" She said as in mid air. She landed on my stomach and started teasing me.

I felt her hand run up my sides and down my chest. She repeated this a couple of times. Just as I was getting used to her hands. She decided that was enough and moved her hands south. Right before her hands got to her favorite spot on me, she hands a drink to me. "Drink it."

I did as I was told. After I finished it, she took it away from my mouth and resumed her actions. I took a deep breath in when her hands wrapped around my dick and started to pump.

"Hiccy you have no idea how long I be waiting for this." She looked down and stopped.

My worst nightmare is coming true. I know I'm not big in that area, but all I wanted was her approve.

"Hiccup you dick is huge. I thought you were going to be smaller. But this is not small, it'sâ€¦..it's the size of my arm" I started to blush while she took a minute, "I need it in me now."

She got up, then slowly lowered herself down to me and placed my dick in her folds. She started to put me inside her. _God_, She was so tight I had to really stretch her.

I looked up at here and I could tell she was in pain. Then I don't know want convince me, but all I did was slam up into her. I felt something break as I went into her. Then right before I was fully in her I felt something stop me. I still had two inches out of her. So I guess that is all I'm going to get inside her. 5 minutes later, I looked back at her and could see pain disappear from her face. Then I looked down.

"OH GODâ€¦.. Astrid you're bleeding." I announced.

"It's fine Hiccup. All you did was take my V-card away."

Right as she said that I fainted.

Astrid's POV _This means Astrid's thoughts_

Great. Now what am I going to do.

I started to move up and down on him. He was still hard inside me. _I guess I could at least finish what I started_. Moving on Hiccup's dick is amazing. I continued to move on him. I began to feel this burning sensation in my body.

I began to move faster and slam down hard on him. That is when I felt him twitch inside me. I slammed down on him and I felt him enter my womb and erupted inside. That is what made me cum and fall on top of him.

After a minute I relaxed on top of Hiccup. I was rolling off to the side when I felt him still inside me. _He cums like a volcano and still can go another round_. I pulled him out of me and notice only a little of his cum came out. I then felt the urge of putting him inside my ass.

I got up and turned around making my ass face him. I slowly lowered myself down and sat on his stomach. I leaned back and moved my hand to his dick. I grabbed his dick and placed it at my ass. I slided down his stomach and pushed his dick inside my ass. _These hurts like hell_. When all of his dick was inside me, I stopped to let my body stench around his massive cock.

After two minutes of sitting still I began to move. Then right as I leaned up, he shot his cum in my ass. _God it feels so weird_. As he was cumming inside me, I started to move. Just to make him cum as much as possible.

Thirty seconds later he stopped cumming, but was still hard. So I continued riding him. About ten minutes later, I felt the same burning sensation as before. Out of the blue, I cum and slam down on him. Right before the sensation went away he came again.

After he was finished I stood up and felt his dick pop out. I look back at him and he had a smile on his face. I then notice some of his cum came out of my ass and was on the sheets. _I need more of this_.

And that's how it went for an hour. He came a total of nine times, four in my ass and five in my pussy. And little of his cum ever came out of me.

I was about to fall asleep when I notice my stomach was bulged out. I then cuddled up to Hiccup and fell asleep knowing he probably won't remember any of these.

Lemon area is past. The next morning

Hiccup's POV

_God I have this headache. What happen last night? _That is when I felt smooth skin. I started to rub my hand around this skin. It has to be someone's stomach. I opened my eyes to see who it was. _ Oh god it was Astrid. She is going to kill me. _That is when Astrid started to move. _What do I do? _I quickly got up from the bed and hit the floor.

"What are you doing Hiccup?" Astrid said.

"Uhâ€¦."

"Here let me help you up."

"It's fineâ€¦ just stay."

"Here." She said while the covers fell off her.

"Oh god." I said before turning around.

"What's wrong Hiccy? It's not like you seen me nude before." She said.

"Oh god that wasn't a dream. I'm s-s-sorry did I hurt you?"

"Hiccup I'm fine, just a little sore." She said while looking down, "Come here I want to show you something."

"Okay?" _God she is so beautiful_. I start to walk over to her. And just before I got up to her, she grabbed my hand and placed it on her stomach.

"Do you feel that?" She said as a rub her stomach.

"F-f-feel what?"

"God you're an idiot, it's you cum you shot inside of me."

"W-w-w-w-what?" was all I could say before I fainted again.

Astrid's POV

Right as Hiccup fainted

"You got to be kidding me." Nope he was still as unconscious just as before.

"Well I better just go take a shower." I said before I got up and walk over to Hiccup. I gently placed him on the bed and walked over to his bathroom.

It felt so weird to use his bathroom. I walked over to his shower and turn on the hot water. Then jumped in, but as I turn around I saw a chair. I forgot Hiccup needs this to use the shower.

My curiosity took over and I sat down in his chair. _This feels very wrong. _I quickly got up and shut the water off just before I heard the door open.

New lemon area, still Astrid's POV

If you don't like it skip to next double lines

"God that was a good dream. Now I guess I should get rid of this boner before I take a shower." Hiccup said aloud without knowing that I am behind the curtain.

That is when I guess he began masterbating because I could hear him moan. What surprised me is when he started to say my name.

"OH Astrid. Yeah Astrid. Yes right there. God Astrid you are good at this." He moaned. That is when I decided to confront him.

"What you doing there Hiccup?" I said look at him.

"Uh uh uh t-t-this is not what it looks like." He said while covering up his crotch.

"It seemed like you were jacking off while imaging me." I had a plan to get him.

"Uh uh uh o-o-ok-okay you caught me. I can't help it you're just so beautiful." Hiccup said embarrassedly.

"Here let me show you how I do it."

"WHAT? What are you doing?" Before he could reject I jumped on his lap and began playing with his dick. "Oh god Astrid you don't want to do that."

"Do what.?" That is when I stood up and lowered my self onto him. There was a little pain, but I put it off as being sore.

"HOLY SHIT" Hiccup yelled while shutting his eyes tight.

I then began to move back up and slam down. I don't know if my mind was playing tricks on me, but I thought he was bigger.

"Asâ€¦.asâ€¦..as" Hiccup tried to say her name.

"What?" That is when I felt him go stiff under me and shot his cum into me.

Lemon Area has past

"Oh god Astridâ€¦. I'm not ready to be a dad." Hiccup said as he got up and paced around the bathroom.

"It is fine Hiccup. It's my time of the month," I said shyly.

"That makes me feel a little bit better. And can you leave for I can take a shower?" Hiccup asked.

I got a nice idea, "Or you could take a bath with me."

Hiccup face lighten up when I said that. "That would be nice I guess."

"Wow I didn't think you would answer so quickly." Astrid stated.

"Here follow me." Hiccup said while grabbing Astrid hand. He lead her down the hall to the master bedroom, then into the master bath.

There was a jacuzzi size tub that could four people. "Dang Hiccup, could you dad not buy a bigger tub.

"Nope. He always likes to buy big stuff." Hiccup respond to Astrid. Then he leaned over and turned on the water.

30 minutes later

With the tub full of water. Hiccup and Astrid both stepped in and lean on each other and relaxed.
